

Alius Maknavičius – member, coordinator of organizing committees of the International competition-festival (2010) of pianists, string and wind instrumentalists 21st century Art in Klaipėda (dedicated to the 200th anniversary of F. Chopin's birth), coordinator of the International competition-festival Renaissance (2014), Pearls of the Baltic (2016) of pianists, string, wind and percussion instrumentalists, member of juries of the S. I. Savshinsky International Music Competition (2016) and others.

A. Maknavičius graduated from the Lithuanian Music Academy in 1992. Together with Brass Quintet of Klaipėda gave concerts in Latvia, Poland, Germany, actively participates in the festivals held by the Lithuania National Philharmony, Union of Musicians, Composers' Union, and international musical events.

His performance of Lithuanian and foreign composers' works was recorded by the Lithuanian TV and radio and in CDs.

Alius Maknavičius – a long-term is member, coordinator of organizing committees of the project Another Aspect of Pianist Training for International Competitions: Open Master Classes and Lessons at the Institute of Continuous Studies, Klaipėda University. Together with the organizer of this project Assoc. Prof. Inga Maknavičienė organizes annual seminars for the projects and acts as chair of their organizing committees.