

Professor Oleg Barsov was born in 1943 in Russia. Started his piano lessons at the age of 6 in Special Music School in Leningrad. Upon graduation entered Leningrad State Conservatory under professor Pavel Serebriakov, where he received Master's and Doctorate degrees subsequently. After graduation was invited to teach at Rostov- on- the Don Conservatory of Music where he worked as Professor of piano for 40 years. At the year of 2006 moved to USA where he continued to teach at his private Studio. During those years he performed on more then 700 concerts all over Russia, Germany, Holland, South America and USA. His students won national and international competitions all over the world. For his work he was awarded with titles People's Artist of Republic of Adygeia and Distinguished Artist of Russia respectively.