

Dong Dejun, Clarinet Professor of China Zhejiang Conservatory of Music, Special Allowance Expert dedicated by the State of Council of China, Winner of "Ou Yongxi Outstanding Music Education Award" by the Ministry of Culture of China. He has been ranked as "Scholar of Qianjiang River" Distinguished Professor in Higher Education of Zhejiang Province and chosen by the "151 Talents Project (first level)" of Zhejiang Province. He is the Vice President of the Clarinet Society of Chinese Musicians Association and a Yamaha Artist. He is currently holding the post of Director of the Orchestral Department of Zhejiang Conservatory of Music, Director of the International Chamber Music Center of Zhejiang Conservatory of Music, Director of the national-level first-class undergraduate professional site for music performance construction, and Director of the provincial-level first-class curriculum in universities of Zhejiang province. He has served as the judge and President of the jury for many major competitions at home and abroad, such as Chinese Music Golden Bell Award Competition, Asia-Pacific Cup International Music Competitions, Russia St. Petersburg International Music Competition, the 10th Italy "Giacomo Mensi" International Clarinet Competition (President of the jury), and the 14th Italy "S. Mercadante" International Clarinet Competition (President of the jury), etc.