

Andrei Ivanov is a graduate of the St. Petersburg State Conservatory. N.A. Rimsky-Korsakov. He studied at the conservatory in two specialties - cello (Professor A.P. Nikitin) and composition (Professor A.D. Mnatsakanyan).

Since 1994, he began regular performances in Europe and America, not only as part of orchestras and chamber ensembles, but also as a soloist.

In 1995 he became a diploma winner of the youth international competition "Virtuosi 2000", and already in 1996, as part of a piano trio, he received the title of laureate of the radio competition "Concertino-Prague".

Since 2000, he has been working as a member of the chamber ensemble "Soloists of St. Petersburg" under the leadership of the People's Artist of Russia, Professor M. Gantvarg. Since 2004 he has been taking part in the work of the «QuArt.Ru» ensemble (piano, cello, clarinet and accordion) as a performer and arranger. In the same year, he joined the instrumental ensemble of Oleg Pogudin.

In 2002, A. Ivanov, as part of a piano quartet, became a laureate of the Taneev international competition of chamber ensembles (Kaluga), in 2003 as part of a duet with the piano — a diploma winner of the Yudina International Competition of Chamber Ensembles, St. Petersburg.
