

Head teacher of the Central Cultural School of Västerås Sweden. President of the Youth Musical Association (RUM - Västmanland), member of the Swedish Accordion Association (SDR), Laureate of international, Russian and Swedish national competitions. Artistic director of several international projects in the field of culture. At the age of 9, she began her studies at the Musical School in accordion class. Graduated with honors from the music school and the Conservatoire Rimsky-Korsakov. Repeatedly received a grant from the governor of St. Petersburg. Since 2000 she is a Swedish citizen. Graduated postgraduate studies and Soloist Diploma at the Royal Academy of Music in Stockholm. Laureate of prestigious Swedish musical competitions for young musicians (Soloist Prize and Jungrenska Competition) where the participants perform in the same group on different instruments and the accordion competes with Piano, vocals, wind and string instruments. In 2002 she played at the presentation of the Polar Music Prize by Sofia Gubaidulina. He is a holder of high scholarships and grants in Sweden (A. Walter, Hans-Erik Nääs, Hagströms priset, Kungliga Musikaliska Akademien). She played with several symphonic and brass bands, among them Symphony Orchestra of Royal Music Academy in Stockholm, Royal Stockholm Philharmonic Orchestra, Marinens Musikkår. Working closely with contemporary composers (Olov Olofsson, Olov Lindgren, Krystina Petterson), the result was the first performance of many works: 2 concerts for an accordion with a symphony orchestra and brass band, solo and blowing accordions. Until 2015 she performed in Scandinavia, Europe, America and Russia.

After doing more teaching work, cultural projects organizations, working on the Swedish system of learning to play the accordion. Among the students there are laureates of international competitions in Stockholm, Prague, Tenerife, Russia, Italy, Serbia, Bosnia & Herzegovina, Austria In 2020 Irina became one of the three finalists of the Music price "Music Teacher of the year.