

Ma Li , associate professor of Nanjing University of the Arts , master tutor , director of the Asian Flute Union, executive director of Jiangsu Wind Music Association. She graduated from the Affiliated high school of Nanjing University of the Arts and Shanghai Music College. In 2006, she was admitted to the first MFA of NUA with the first grade of her major, and successively studied under professors Zhang Zhihua, Liu Pin, He Shengqi and Chen Jianhua. She has held many solo concerts, duets and other concerts since 1998. In 2004 , She was awarded the outstanding instructor for her students' third prize in the youth group in the First National Flute Competition of Art Colleges and Universities held by the Ministry of Culture of China. In 2009, she won the award for Woodwind Quintet in the Golden Bell Award held by China Musicians Association. Since then, many of her students have won gold and silver awards of "Little Golden Bell"; Yangtze River Delta Pipe Music Competition junior group top three, youth group gold award, and many students of hers are the chief flutes of Sichuan, Shanghai, Jiangsu symphony orchestra.