

Xu Wenjia: doctor, percussion lecturer of Zhejiang Conservatory of music, vice president of Zhejiang percussion society, director of IPEA International Percussion Education Association, and invited performer of Shanghai percussion orchestra. Blackswamp, freer penetration, Grover Pro penetration, innovative penetration, majestic, mikebalter international contract artist.

He has won the gold medal of the national percussion competition, and the small projects funded by the national art foundation. He has published the teaching material "malimba scale and arpeggio", and has participated in Shanghai Spring International Music Festival, Beijing National Grand Theatre, National Academy of Fine Arts Concert Series, etc. He was invited to join the German Hanover percussion orchestra. His works cover a wide range of fields, and have been highly praised by the well-known German newspapers and media. He is known as "the most shining new generation percussion player".