

Nathan Agranovsky is currently a 6th grade student at Sanford Middle School in the Pre-International Baccalaureate program. He also is an advanced belt in Taekwondo and will be testing for his first degree black belt in November of this year. In addition, he loves music, technology and reading science fiction in his extra time. Even amidst the pandemic he's remained social with his peers through online schooling as well as various forms of gaming. He has been studying under the instruction of Zalina Gurevich and Professor Oleg Barsov since age 4. During the pandemic, he and his music teachers have adapted to the situation and continued his music education. Up to this year he has received 7 consecutive superior ratings through FFMC since 2015 in numerous categories. He has received numerous state level awards within FFMC as well. Some examples include: 1st place in Piano APFS and Honorable Mention in Piano Hymn in 2019, an honorable mention in Piano Concerto in 2018, an honorable mention in piano hymn and 1st place in piano concerto in 2017, and others. Within Orlando Music Clubs he has received numerous awards including 1st place Awards in Piano Solo, Piano APFS, Piano Hymn, and Piano Concerto in 2019. Additionally, in 2018 he received 2nd place awards in Piano Solo and Concerto and 1st place awards in Piano APFS and Hymn. He has also received 2nd place in the 2018 Steinway Piano Competition. He is looking forward to expanding his musical education as he continues to study and gain experiences throughout the coming years.
