

Short biography of Anastasiia Borovik .

Since 2014, Anastasiia Borovik has been studying flute in Sviridov St. Petersburg Childrens Art School . She is a member of an international flute playing sessions, she is a laureate of the state and international music competitions, playing solo and as the part of the ensemble and the orchestra . In 2019, she became a first-grade laureate on the VI St. Petersburg open musical contest of the wind and percussion instruments. She is a laureate of the online - musical contest, dedicated to the 180th anniversary of Tchaikovsky in 2020. In February 2020, she became a third-grade laureate on the IX St. Petersburg “ Young Virtuoso” competition for the solo flute players.