

My name is Christina Zhou, a year 12 student at St Cuthbert's College in Auckland, New Zealand. I have studied flute for more than 10 years. My mother was a classical singer, so music has always been a very important part of my growth. In my free time, I like to sing and make music with my friends. I took part in music or flute US local and international competitions in recent years and got prizes .