

Frey Franzén Garuz

Was born in Brussels, April 2007 and is a young violinist now living on the island of Gotland (Sweden).

Frey started playing the violin at the age of six. His teachers are presently Annika Nummelin and the Polish violinist Kristoffer Dolatko.

Frey participates in the Young Strings' Academy at the National Center for Talent development in Vänersborg (SWE), has participated in the summer orchestra camp of Jeunesse Austria in Mariazell 2018-19, in the Master Class program of the Orford Arts Center in Canada with Stephen Copes 2020, and in the Polar Star course 20/21. He has also taken occasional lessons from the Chinese violinist Yamei Yu.

Frey has received scholarships for musical achievements from the Musical Society Visby (2020) and from Kerstin and Sigge Strands Foundation (2021).