

Hayk Hekeyan studies in Sayat-Nova music school in Yerevan. Teacher – Harutyun Shakhkhan.

Hayk had many concerts in Armenia and abroad. Hayk has also participated in international festivals and competitions, won prizes: “Art Music” (Yerevan 2018, 2020, Grand Prix), “Renaissance” (Gyumri 2017, 2019, I prize), “Otar Taktakishvili International Competition” (Georgia 2018, diploma), “Wind Instruments Grand Competition” (Yerevan, Gyumri 2019, I prize), “The Nutcracker XX” international competition (Russia, Moscow 2019), “Music for Future Foundation” M4FF online-competition (Yerevan 2020, was one of 10 winners), “The North International Music Competition” (Sweden 2020, II prize) “Talents of Europe” International Art Festival (2021, Spain – 1st prize), International Competition dedicated to S. Prokofiev “Silk Way” (2021, Russia – I Prize).

Hayk Hekeyan also sings in the choir “Little Singers of Armenia”. He has participated in several concerts, festivals, seminars, symposiums as a member of the choir in Armenia and all over the world.

Hayk has taken part in different master-classes, recordings. In 2019 Hayk performed with the National Chamber Orchestra of Armenia (NCOA), conducted by Karen Durgaryan.