

The Ilo (meaning “joy” in Finnish) Quartet, comprised of violinists Hannah Duncan and Charlotte Loukola, violist August DuBeau, and cellist, Myeonggyun Charles Noh was formed in 2020 at the Cleveland Institute of Music. The ensemble primarily works with Si-Yan Darren Li, Todd Phillips, and Philip Setzer. The ensemble is one of only five quartets selected to participate in the Advanced String Quartet Program at CIM and has performed in masterclasses given by members of the Emerson, Miami, and Orion Quartets. The ILO Quartet were the winners of the 2021 Senior Division (String and Piano) People’s Choice Award of the Coltman Competition.
