

Name: Yasmin Iskakova
 Birth date: June 17, 2011
 Instruments: violin, piano

Yasmin Iskakova is a 3d grade student of Aubakirova School Almaty, Kazakhstan with two major music courses in Violin and Fortepiano. She appeared to this world to be a musician. It is an interesting story: while Yasmin's mom was pregnant she listened to the classical music only, most favorite were violin compositions of Antonio Vivaldi. When Yasmin was 3 years old she with certainty told she will play violin.

A talented child started to learn music at kinder garden. She loved to took part in all music performances and one day a music teacher of her told that Yasmin has an extraordinary ear for music. When she was 5 years old she started piano courses and in three months successfully passed all tests for admission to school. She started to play violin as her major course because her talent was seen by entrance commission and they insisted Yasmin to play violin.

Yasmin is a very communicative child: she has many friends at school and excellent results in general school subjects.

Yasmin always takes part in local and international music contests and already has several awards:
