

She began to study Bassoon with Yang Ling, teacher of Nanjing Art College in May 2019. In August 2020, she won the silver award of the youth group in the first national online wind competition held by China orchestral network, and the gold award of the primary school group in the 2020 Yangtze River Delta wind competition. As an excellent winner, she participated in the award-winning concert on behalf of Jiangsu Province.