

Mingfeng Zhou, born in China in 2003, has shown the musical talent since he was a child. He was started to learn music at the age of 5, won the first prize in Hong Kong international competition in 12. He was appreciated by Hou Donglei-A viola teacher with profound musical attainments, learned to play viola when he was 15. With the guidance of Hou Donglei, he Successfully admitted to Xinghai Conservatory of music affiliated middle school. In the meantime, he won the Successful participation Award in Swiss International Music Competition, and the first place in Rocky Mountain Strings Competition.