

Marija Pranskutė studied at the M.K.Čiurlionis National School of Music and Arts with teacher experts Beata Šmidtiene later with prof. Ingrida Armonaitė-Galinienė. She also completed her bachelor's studies at the Lithuanian Academy of Music and Theater in the class of prof. Ingrida Armonaitė-Galinienė and currently is studying with prof. Rūta Lipinaitė.

Marija is a laureate and diplomat of many national and international competitions (two international S. Sondeckis competitions, "Olympus musical" competitions, "Sonorum" international competitions for young performers, national B. Dvarionas competition, competitions for the 90th anniversary, for the 120th anniversary of the violinist V. Motiekaitis, the 90th anniversary of E. Paulauskas, International String Competition Baltic String Competition).

While was a schoolgirl, she gave concerts in various Lithuanian halls and was touring Peru. Marija was performing solo with Lithuanian and St. Kristofotas chamber orchestras, symphony orchestras of the National M. K. Čiurlionis School of Music and Arts at the LMTA conducted by Saulius Sondeckis, Donatas Katkus, Modestas Pitrenas, Robertas Šervenikas, Vytautas Lukočius, Martynas Staškus. In 2018 she was participating in many projects, during which he performed with the Royal Concertgebouw Amsterdam Orchestra. In a composite concert of various orchestras and chamber ensembles with such famous performers as Aleksey Igudesman, Nigel Kennedy, David Nebel, Mari Samuelsen, Vytautas Sondeckis and others.

Marija Pranskutė was taking master classes with famous performers and teachers Christian Altenburger, Boris Garlitzki, Barbara Lüneburg, Marianne Piketty, Boris Brovtsyn. 2018 The piano trio Meta, formed on the initiative of the violinist. They won the 1st place in the 18th International Bankruptcy of Lithuanian Composers in Vilnius. 2019 Meta represented at the Lithuanian International Chamber Music Festival