

He began to study piano in 2011 and obtained the certificate of Grade 8 of Shanghai Conservatory of music. In 2015, he entered the band class of Jinhui experimental school, followed his enlightening teacher Zeng Weiji to learn the upper bass horn. In 2016, he was admitted to Shanghai Minhang District Youth Orchestra and became a musician of the upper bass horn. In June 2017, he won the gold medal of copper tube group in Minhang District students' art competition, and in September of the same year, he won the bronze medal of Shanghai students' art competition, and obtained the level 8 certificate of upper bass amateur examination. In November 2017, he was admitted to group A of the Chinese welfare society children's Palace Art Troupe and became a trumpet musician. In September 2018, he began to study trombone with Professor Li Dali. In April 2019, he studied music theory with Mr. Zhao Xiaoou and won the gold award of the first performance of Minhang District wind music union in 2019. In August 2020, I will be admitted to the secondary music college affiliated to Shanghai Conservatory of music!