

Viktorie Kozánková was born on 24 June 2009 in the musical family. Her father Robert is the Solo trombonist of the Czech Philharmonic Orchestra and her mother Ivana is the piano teacher. When she was 3 years old, she started to play piano and took piano lessons at the musical school by Mrs. Lucie Halíček Czajkovská. She is participating both in national and international competitions regularly and she became several awards. Among the biggest success belongs four times victory in the International Piano competition Amadeus in Brno, Czech Republic (2016-2019). She plays also flute and she was appointed as an actor in the Theatre Husa na provázku in the piece Amadeus.