

Born in Shanghai, China, a musical family, has a high talent for music and art. He began to learn piano at the age of 5, which laid a solid foundation for his later artistic career; At the age of 8, he began to study trombone with Mr. Zhao Zhunan, the chief of Shanghai Opera president, and performed many times since the age of 10; After that, he studied under Professor Li Dali of Shanghai Conservatory of music. Now he is a junior high school student attached to Shanghai Conservatory of music, with rich experience in band. He joined Shanghai Pingnan primary school orchestra, Shanghai Shixi junior high school orchestra and Shanghai Conservatory of music junior high school Youth Symphony Orchestra, and served as the trombone chief. He has participated in performances of Shanghai Philharmonic Orchestra and other professional orchestras for many times. He visited Holland, Germany, the United States, Canada, Belarus and other countries for exchange performances. He has won the gold medal of Shanghai Jingan District trombone single event. First place in the fifth group of the 2020 Paris Opera international music competition. He won the first prize in the youth professional group of 2020 French young performer International Music