

Born in February 2005 in China, Yang Zhang began violin studies at the age of 6. The notable violin competition prizes include Gold medal in "Sunshine Walk Healthy Walk" Chinese Youth Art Education Performance Competition; Silver Award in "Yun Yun Cup" String Competition, Guangdong "Alice" Cup String Competition and Guangdong Children's Violin Performance Competition.

After several years of violin lessons, Yang decided to switch to the viola in 2019. She is currently a Music School Attached to Xinghai Conservatory of Music student under the tutelage of Associate Prof. Donglei Hou. As a young promising violist, she won the third prize in Ming Classics International Online Music Competition. She has been praised by the audience for her rich tone and elegant phrasing.
