

Diana Viktoria Cel was born in Wrocław in Poland. She is 12 years old. Currently, she is a sixth-grader at the Music School of the First degree in the violin class led by Karolina Cel and prof. Viktor Kuznetsov. She is a first prize winner of over thirty national and international violin and instrumental competitions, including 1st prize at the International Competition in Zaporozhye in Ukraine (2019, 2021), 1st prize at International Music Competition in Serbia (2020), Grand Prix in CA AVE MUSIC Competition in Turkey(2020), 1st prize at Odesa Music Olimp Competition, 1st prize at „Gates of Hope Competition” in Israel, 1st prize 1st place in Music Art Express in Belarus, Rome Music Competition and many others in Poland: Talent Competition in Poznań, 1st place at the Little Virtuoso Competition in Warsaw. She is a multiple scholarship holder of the Mayor of the city of Wrocław. She took a masterclass from such professors as Mikhail Kuznetsov, Zoya Nevgodovska and Bartosz Bryła. She regularly performs throughout Poland, taking part in chamber concerts and music festivals, including Wratislavia Cantans, Silesia Sonans, Little Artist Academy. Apart from playing the violin, her passion is opera and opera singing, as well as playing the piano. Diana plays on Italian luthier violin 19th century from collection Foundation ESKM (Poland).