

Rebeka Krivade

b. June 17th 2011, Riga, Latvia

Violinist

Artistic biography

At the age of six (in 2017) Rebeka started studying violin at Children's musical school of Kekava, with daily lessons in violin, piano and music theory.

Since the outset of her studies she has been showing talent and studying with excellence, coming first in her class.

Since 2019 she has been successfully competing locally and internationally.

Rebeka's most important inspirations are live concerts by virtuoso violinists Nigel Kennedy and David Garrett.

Apart from playing violin, she composes her own pieces for piano.

Awards

March 2019 – Diploma of recognition, The International String Instrument Competition, organized by the Vilnius Karoliniškės Music School, Lithuania

December 2020 – Violin masterclasses with the world-recognized Latvian violinist Kristine Balanas, awarded in a competition with numerous other applicants

April 2021 – I prize, International Music Competition „Citta di Sarzana 2021”

May 2021 – III prize, Instrumental category, American Edition, International contest, organized by Fiestalonia Milenio, Spain

May 2021 – IV place, Rocky Mountain Strings Competition, Toronto, Canada

May 2021 – I prize, Platinum medal, Quebec International Music Competition

May 2021 – II prize, International Viennese Spring Music Competition, organized by International Music Association Gloria Artis in Vienna

July 2021 – I prize, 21st Century Talents Music Competition – Summer 2021, Ottawa, Canada

August 2021 – II prize, MEDICI International Music Competition, London, United Kingdom

February 2022 – II prize, VI Tokyo International Music Competition, Tokyo, Japan

February 2022 – IV prize, London Classical Music Competition