

German violinist Johanna Kulke won several prizes at the Swiss Youth Music Competition and the Kiwanis Competition Burgdorf.

She performed as a soloist with the Youth Symphony Orchestra Bern, the youth orchestra of the music school Oberaargau, the Musikgesellschaft St. Urban and other orchestras.

Orchestra tours have taken her with the Gustav Mahler Youth Orchestra, the Youth Symphony Orchestra Bern and the Lucerne Chamber Philharmony throughout Europe, Russia and China.

She is concertmaster of the Youth Symphony Orchestra Bern since 2019.

Various masterclasses complete her education.

Johanna Kulke is a scholarship holder of the Hirschmann Foundation.