

Leah is currently 13 in 7th grade and she has loved music her whole life. She started playing the piano when she was 6, she has found many ways to express her feelings and connect through music. Also, she has been drawing since she was 6 and has won quite a number of awards. This year, she has won four medals and two silver medals in the National Scholastic Art & Writing Awards. Ever since she started studying with her piano teacher, Zalina Gurevich she has progressed a good amount. She also has won a couple of piano awards studying with her. Leah hopes she can bring people together with the passion and love that she has for music.
