

Maya Broman Crawford-Phillips comes from a musical family and started playing the violin at 5 years old. She studies at Lilla Akademien where she studies with Nina Balabina.

In 2019 Maya was selected to participate in the Young Musicians Academy, (National Centre for Music Talent), and participates in a series of masterclasses every year with many internationally

acclaimed musicians - Barnabas Keleman, Alf Richard Kraggerud, Olivier Charlier, Denis Goldfelt,

Alissa Margulis, Massimo Quarta, amongst others.

Maya has competed in National and International competitions such as

Polstjärnepriset, Øresunds

solist, SIMc and Northern International Competition in which she received 1st place. As part of her involvement in Polstjärnepriset Maya has performed several recitals and chamber music concerts. In 2020 she received the Welin Scholarship for young string players.

Maya was also chosen to tour with the O/Modernt Chamber Orchestra as part of their New

Generation program