

Kärt Katriin Nagel's short bio

Kärt Katriin is an 19-year-old student who has played the flute for almost 10 years. From the age of eight to the age of 16 she was tutored by Oksana Iljašenko. In 2019 Kärt Katriin graduated from Tartu's First Music School and continued her studies at Heino Eller Music College where her current tutor is Heili Mägi. IX Stockholm International Music Competition will be her second international competition, having participated in it last year. Apart from studying music she is also studying physical therapy at the University of Tartu.