

Natchanok Chonlacoop's Biography

7-years-old Thai, born in U.S., Natchanok Chonlacoop started learning piano at the age of 3. She has been under tutelage of Dr. Pornphan Banternghansa and Ms. Chirapa Wungkaom since 2019 in Thailand.

At her young age, she has achieved an array of musical accomplishments; for instance, her achievements include First Prize Winner from The American Protégé International Piano and Strings Competition 2022, Gold Medal from The 22nd AADGT International Young Musicians Festival, Gold Prize winner from Chicago International Music Competition and Festival 2022, 2nd Prize from 2022 London Classical Music Competition, Gold Prize from Osaka International Music Competition 2021, Gold Medal Absolute Artist of the Year Prize from International Youth Music Competitions 2021. Platinum and Best Youngest Virtuoso Award from WPTA SINGAPORE International Piano Competition 2021, Gold Prize from The Inaugural WPTA Indonesia International Piano Competition 2021 (Indonesia), Gold Prize from World Classical Music Award 2021, Platinum and Best Youngest Virtuoso Award from WPTA SINGAPORE International Piano Competition 2021.

In order to improve her musical skills, Natchanok has joined various masterclasses conducted by professors and renowned pianists, such as Prof. Dr. Rolf Dieter Arens; former Dean, Franz Liszt Hochschule, Weimar, Germany and Mr. Shuenda Wong; Malaysian pianist and music educator.

Natchanok is also a keen horse rider. She always enjoys playing violin, horse dressage, reading, and swimming in her free time. Her passion for music, sport and literature reinforces her strong confidence in her social life and academia.