

Primary school began to learn popular percussion and Western Percussion. Junior high school and senior high school once studied in Xiamen Music School Affiliated to Xiamen University. During school, they participated in symphonic concerts and competitions for many times, and also participated in the rehearsal and performance of many percussion ensemble. Now studying in Zhejiang Conservatory of music.

In addition to participating in the performance, She also participated in many individual competitions and won many awards. She won the first prize of malimba and the second prize of small military drum in Xiamen youth percussion competition in 2021; 2019-2020 first prize of malimba small military drum in Fujian IPEA percussion competition; The second prize of malimba and the third prize of xiaojungu in 2018 Beijing percussion competition; 2017 Japan Youth percussion competition malimba Silver Award, ensemble Gold Award and other awards