

Linnea Turesson was born in Stockholm, Sweden and presently lives in Maine, USA. She began studying violin a little over 2 1/2 years ago after a violinist at her school approached her parents and strongly encouraged lessons.

Within 18 months of commencing studies, she was awarded a masterclass with Midori and placed second in a statewide competition. This is Linnea's first competition outside of Maine.