

Zhou Yuehu

Since 2018, he has studied oboe from Professor Sun Minghong, vice president of China Wind Music Association, director of the orchestra Department of Shanghai Conservatory of music and famous oboe player, and obtained the following excellent achievements:

In January 2019, he won the gold award of Singapore Asian International Music Competition;

In June 2019, he won the first prize of wind music competition in Southwest China;

In August 2019, he won the title of "Wind Star" with the first place in Oboe in the "little golden bell of Chinese music" competition, and won the honor of "new talent of Chinese wind music" with the first place in total score;

In August 2019, as a percussion, Cello and oboe player, he toured Australia with the children's palace small partner art troupe of China Welfare Association.

In September 2019, he was admitted to the secondary college affiliated to Shanghai Conservatory of music with the first professional achievement, continued to learn from Professor Sun Minghong, received professional oboe learning and training, and received the guidance of world-famous oboe players, Professor j.e.rome, Professor Martin frutiger, Professor Thomas indermuehle, Professor Yao Sanglin, Professor Wang Liang, etc,

In 2019, he participated in the Italian jekiri International Music Competition and achieved excellent results.

In 2020, he won ten awards in various international music competitions, respectively:

Two special awards:

1. Special prize for outstanding young talents in the 26th Salzburg international music competition, Austria;

2. Special prize for outstanding young talents in 2020 International Music Competition of "excellent performer Grand Prix" in Bonn, Germany.

First prize six times:

1. The first prize of the 26th Salzburg International Music Competition in Austria;

2. The first prize of 2020 Paris Opera House International Music Competition;

The first prize of the 7th Hong Kong International Music Festival and international music competition in 2020;

4. The first prize of 2020 Chicago International Music Competition;

5. The first prize of 2020 International Music Competition of "outstanding performer Grand Prix" in Bonn, Germany;

6. The first prize of 2020 Canada International Music Competition.

Second prize:

1. The second prize of 2020 Berlin Philharmonic music competition;

2. The second prize of the 6th Hungary International Music Competition in 2020.

The awards in various international music competitions in 2021 are:

In January 2021, he won the second prize of the international music competition in St. Petersburg, Russia, and was the only oboe among the winners;

In April 2021, the third prize of the international music competition for musicians and composers in Nice, France;

First prize of Karlsruhe International Music Competition in April 2021;

Second prize of Sweden International Music Competition in June 2021;

In June 2021, the Swiss International Music Player competition won the first place with a full score of 100;

In July 2021, the first absolute award of the century talent international musician competition in Ottawa, Canada, at the level of high difficulty competition;

On June 18, 2021, he was selected into the "sound talent helps fly" program of outstanding students of Shanghai Conservatory of music, successfully held his first solo concert in Shanghai Shangyin opera house, and became the youngest student to hold oboe solo concert since the establishment of Shanghai Conservatory of music in the past century.

