

Zoja Giza, at only 15 years old is already a promising young cellist, with a lot of stage experience and many significant competition awards on her account. She started learning her instrument when she was 8. She's attending the „Talents Class” in the music school in Bydgoszcz (Poland) in Iwona Michalak's cello class. She loves music, reading and traveling. Zoja performed all around her country and abroad. She participated in many national and international competitions. Here are a few most important ones from the last 2 years:

- 1st Prize - National CEA (Artistic Education Center) Cello Competition, Warsaw Poland (2022)
- Laureate Title and The Musical Personality of the Competition - VI National Competition „Forte” - Poznan, Poland (2021)
- 1st Prize - XIV Competition for Young Cellist, Wrocław Poland (2021)
- 1st Prize (in chamber category, with Piano Quintet) - II Brussels International Music Competition (2021)
- Grand Prix – 26th National Cello Confrontations in Bydgoszcz, Poland (2021)
- 1st prize - International String Instruments Competition in Elbląg, Poland (2021)
- 3rd Prize on the 3rd Gustav Mahler Prize Cello Competition in Prague, Czech (2021)
- 1st Prize - 12th World Open Online Music Competition - Belgrad, Serbia (2021)
- 1st Prize - I International Art Competition „Silk Way” EUROPE-RUSSIA-CHINA w Moscow, Russia (2021)
- The Finalist Title in ATMA's National Competition of Musical Individualities in Zakopane, Poland (2020)
- 1st Prize - International Moscow Music Competition in Moscow, Russia (2020)
- 1st Prize – 4th National Cello and Double Bass Tournament – Warsaw, Poland (2020)