

Prapussorn Andersson is a piano student from the Young Artist Music Program (YAMP), College of Music Mahidol University. Prapussorn is a talented student, she won many competitions both at home and abroad. She won the First Prize in the Grand Prize Virtuoso International Competition 2022. As a result, she traveled to perform in the winner concert at Solitär Mozarteum University in Salzburg, Austria. She also won the first prize in other competitions such as Wien International Young Musicians Music Competition 2022, won the Platinum Medal from the 2022 Quebec Music Competition, etc.

Prapussorn was born in 2004. She start to studied piano since she was 10 at Kitapat Music School, Phetchaburi with Chatpracert Arthitchay and Wanchana Sompakdee. In 2020, she entered YAMP and has been studying piano with Dr. Teeranai Jirasirikul. During her time at YAMP, she got many opportunities to perform in public. She was a school representative performing in many events such as Student Honors concert, Open House, Music Festival, Piano Showcase, and others. She also participate in a piano masterclass for many fine pianists such as Prof. Rolf-Dieter, and Anant Changwaiwit.