

Andreev Artem

Was born on the 26th of May 2010

From his childhood he was fond of music. As his grandfather was a pianist, they were playing the piano together, listening to music and songs and singing.

After visiting the cello concert when he was 4, he asked to start studying cello and he did.

- October 2016 participate XV Rahvusvaheline Poiste Keelpillifestival Kuressaares
- October 2017 participate XVI Rahvusvaheline Poiste Keelpillifestival Kuressaares
- May 2017 third prize in VI Stockholm International Music Competition (solo)
- May 2017 third prize in VI Stockholm International Music Competition (ensemble)
- December 2017 participate in V Moscow cello festival “cello generation”
- May 2018 All - Russian competition of arts “Good sounds of the earth” - 2nd Prize
- February 2018 1st prize in Shaporin stars competition
- October 2018 Primo premio assoluto in the music competition Euterpe (20th edition)
- October 2018 Primo premio (orchestra) in the music competition Euterpe (20th edition)
- December 2018 participate in VI Moscow cello festival “cello generation”
- May 2019 third prize in VII Stockholm international music competition (solo)
- May 2019 third prize in VII Stockholm international music competition (ensemble)
- February 2019 2nd prize in Shaporin stars competition
- April 2019 1st prize in Moscow Solfeggio Olimpiade
- September 2019 participate in opening of the II concert season “children's philharmonic society”
- March 2020 participate in Shaporin stars competition
- February 2020 participated at the winner's concert on the 16th February 2020 with participants from 16 countries (Stage 4Kids), Hamburg, Germany
- November 2020 Laureate 2nd prize «The night in Madrid” International Youth music competition- festival
- March 2021 1st prize in Shaporin stars competition
- May 2022 third prize in VIII Stockholm international music competition (solo)
- March 2022 1st prize in Shaporin stars competition