

Angelina Wang was born in 2004 in Stockholm and started playing piano when she was five years old. She studied classical music at the primary school Lilla akademien where she met her piano teacher Niina Uggeldahl. She is currently studying her last year of high school at Stockholms Musikgymnasium. During these years, she has attended numerous concerts, and have received scholarships and got good results in many competitions.

She attended Stockholm International Music Competition in 2014 and 2016, and won respectively first and third prize. In 2018 she attended in Stainway Piano Festival and received second prize.

In 2019, she won scholarship awarded by Ruby & Lars Ullman's Foundation; In 2023, she won scholarship awarded by Foundation Marianne Hillerudhs Minnesfond.