

Anna-Pelagea Petrov was born in 2014, Tallinn, Estonia. From the beginning of the life Anna was surrounded the classical music, attending sacred music concerts performed by her parents. Anna-Pelagea's father Valery Petrov is the composer and conductor of the choir ensemble, mother Maria Peterov is a classical singer. Anna-Pelagea has begun violin studies from age three with the violin teacher Katrin Talmar. At the age of 7 years old Anna-Pelagea entered the Tallinn Secondary Music School (TMKK), which has transformed from 2022 into Tallinn School of Music and Ballet (MUBA). Anna has continued studying violin with teacher Elo Tepp.

In 2023 at the age of 8 Anna-Pelagea has made her first debut as Concert soloist with Tallinn Chamber Orchestra, taking part in project „MUBA Virtuosoosid“ (Virtuosos of MUBA) performing A.Komarowski Concertino in G dur.

Anna-Pelagea enjoys singing and she is an active member of Tallinn youth choir Raduga for more than 5 years. She has performed in many concerts in different music halls in Estonia.