

Anika Dimitrova was born in 2011 in Sofia, Bulgaria. She has been playing the piano since she was 6. Next year she was admitted to the National School of Music “Lyubomir Pipkov” in Sofia with double bass.

Anika Dimitrova is a laureate of a number awards from international competitions:

2021

1st prize at VI International Festival “Polyhymnia” – Skopje 2021

2nd prize at VIII International Competition “The Sound Of The Time” – Veliko Tarnovo 2021

3rd prize at XV Internatioal Classical Music Competition for Youg Performers – Pernik 2021

1st prize at XII World Open Music Competition – Belgrade 2021

1st prize at Festival 4 Arts II edition – Campina 2021

2022

2nd prize – International Grand Music Competition – Moscow 2022

2nd prize – II International Instrumental Competition “GOLDEN STRINGS” – Veliko Tarnovo 2022

2nd prize – XVI International Classical Music Competition for Young Performers – Pernik 2022

Master class – IV edition, Kaloyan Trifonov – Veliko Tarnovo 2022

3rd prize – IX International Competition “The Sound of The Time” – Veliko Tarnovo 2022

1st prize at XIII World Open Music Competition – Belgrade 2022

1st prize – International Competition for Chamber Ensembles and Solo Performers – Borovets 2022

Special Mention - Medici International Music Competition - London 2022

1st prize - Music Competition Online, Opus Artis Paris 2022

2nd prize - 1st Lugano International Music Competition - Lugano,
Switzerland 2022

2023

1st prize - Music Competition „Pat Kam Slavata“ - Sofia 2023

3rd prize - III Edition of the “String Competition Online” Warsaw, Poland 2023

1st prize - XII International Competition “Città di Massa” Italy 2023

3rd prize - XVII International Classical Music Competition for Young
Performers - Pernik 2023

Special Mention - International Music Competition “OPUS” -Warsaw, Poland
2023

2nd prize - X International Competition “The Sound of The Time” - Veliko
Tarnovo 2023