

Morgan Flanigan of Maine, USA is a 2022 graduate of the Cleveland Institute of Music with majors in Piano Performance and Music Theory and a Concentration in Piano Pedagogy. She currently studies under the tutelage of Kathryn Brown in the Master of Music Program at CIM and is on the piano faculty at the CIM Preparatory School. Ms. Flanigan's pedigree of experience in both solo and collaborative performance spans numerous well-known festivals and competitions on the eastern coast of the United States, including performances at the Atlantic Music Festival, Bowdoin International Music Festival, Rebecca Penneys Piano Festival, Classical WSMR Radio and others, in addition to international appearances in Sweden and England. Chamber music remains one of Ms. Flanigan's greatest joys, leading her to participate in the Cleveland Institute of Music's Chamber Music, Intensive Duo, and Advanced Piano Trio Programs.