

Ensemble La ViE is named after the big sister Elsa and little brother Viktor, V for Viktor and E for Elsa. Elsa began to practice piano at an early age. In the last two years, Elsa received several national and international music awards. Inspired by the big sister, Viktor developed his interests in music and started to play violin at the age 6. They enjoy practising together and formed the ensemble La ViE.