

Heling Zhang is an 8-year-old cello girl, who is learning her cello and piano at Musikskolan Lilla Akademien in Stockholm Sweden. She began playing the cello at the age of 4, and since then, her passion and dedication to the instrument have only grown. She has performed in several small concerts, and got a 3rd prize in IX North International Music Competition in 2022, impressing audiences with her technical skills and musicality.

Despite her young age, Heling is already known for her mature interpretation of classical pieces, including works by Bach, Beethoven, and Tchaikovsky. When she's not practising the cello, Heling loves to ski, rock climb and horse ride, and she is an avid fan of nature and animals. Her dream is to one day become a professional cellist and share her love of music with the world.
