

Brief ART BIOGRAPHY

Ivan Iskeyev

Iskeyev Ivan Denisovich was born on April 16, 2003 in a family of musicians. At the age of seven, he began studying flute and piano at the Prokofiev Moscow State Medical School.

From the first days of training, Ivan proved himself to be a musically talented child with excellent musical abilities. He has creative thinking, excellent memory, developed hearing and rhythm. Extremely collected and attentive in the learning process, constantly shows creative initiative.

A conscious choice of the flute as the basis of one's professional activity, a responsible attitude to the requirements of the teacher and the idea of the author of the performed work together give excellent results and rapid professional growth.

Ivan Iskeev is a laureate of All-Russian and international competitions, the latest of which were the 4th All-Russian competition of wind and percussion instruments named after A.G.Nikitinov – II Prize (2022), the International Festival-competition of performers on wind and percussion instruments "Altai Cup" - GRAND PRIX (2023), the 4th international competition-festival "Colors of Music" – I prize, etc.

In 2019, having passed the competitive tests, he entered the Moscow State College of Musical Performance named after F.Chopin, where he is currently studying in the flute class. The teacher is Stanislav Alexandrovich Yaroshevsky.

Ivan combines successful training with an active, bright and fruitful concert activity and orchestral activity that does not leave the audience indifferent!
