

Born in Calgary, AB, Sacha is a 10yr old violinist who's been creating music for half his life. As a toddler he knew in his heart he was a violinist, and started lessons at age 5. He made his Solo debut at the age of 6 when he performed for over an hour at Olympic Plaza.

He is currently a Violinist at the Mount Royal University Conservatory in Calgary where he plays first violin with the Sinfonia Orchestra, is a member of a chamber group Trio-Magico, and works on his Solo repertoire.

Sacha loves making music with others, and has been declared a prodigy by every teacher who has worked with him. He has been a member of 5 orchestras, including the Elgar Orchestra (2023) where he performed alongside Concertmasters Andrew Wan (Montreal) & Jonathan Crow (Toronto) in the Bella Hall.

In July 2022, Sacha was the Grand Prize winner of his age category for all instruments at the Canadian Music Competition (CMC) in Quebec City. He then performed a solo (Mendelssohn's violin concerto) with the Quebec Symphony Orchestra at the Gala Concert on July 4, where he received a huge standing ovation. Sacha was the youngest soloist ever to perform at the CMC Gala in their 64 year history!

Sacha began participating in music competitions in 2021. In 2021 and 2022, Sacha placed #1 in several competitions, and received the Gold Seal with Distinction in multiple violin competitions throughout the province. He then was awarded FIRST PLACE for VIOLIN SOLO in the AMFA finals for both 2021 and 2022.

Sacha was invited to perform a solo with the Sherbrooke Symphony Orchestra in Quebec on Dec 4, 2022, where he received an extended standing ovation from the packed-house audience of 1500 people.

He has also been a secret surprise guest and volunteer at several events, fundraisers for humanitarian causes and wildlife education/preservation, senior centers, and festivals across Canada.

Sacha has inspired kids from coast to coast to get into music and work hard to reach their dreams. Sacha's deep love and passion for the violin is felt by his audiences in an almost magical way!

Sacha invites you to come and get inspired to reach for the stars!
