

Our daughter, Julia Zhao, is a lovely six-year-old girl with a passion for playing the piano. Having started learning just a year and a half ago, she has quickly grown fond of the instrument. Julia's happiness truly shines through when she successfully plays a song, filling the room with her bright smile. As she takes the stage for her piano solo, we can't wait to see her share that joy with everyone.