

Yiğitcan Kesendere started his violin education at the age of 6 with Bayazit Akhundov. He studied at Uludağ University State Conservatory and Mimar Sinan Fine Arts University State Conservatory. She has worked with Seda Gürtel, Alexander Markov, Albert Markov, Roby Lakatos, İslam Manafov, Aydın Esen, Cihat Aşkın, Gilles Apap, Asım Can Gündüz. As one of the founders of the Contemporary Youth Symphony Orchestra, he performed the "Dream Theater-Octavarium Symphonic Cover" concert for the first time in the world. He performed the premiere concert of "Utar Artun-Elegie" and "Yngwie Malmsteen-Amberdawn" for the first time in the world. Received the 1st prize in the 2017 New York Jazz Competition-Solo Category.