

Bio of Jacky

Jacky is a talented musician with a passion for playing the cello. Born in Hong Kong in 2009, he started playing the cello when he was just seven years old in Prague, Czech. Now he is taking private cello lessons with his teacher---professor Li-wei Qin, who is a world famous cellist, and Ms. Chen, who is a graduate from Yale school of music and Eastman School of Music, she is also the cello professor at Vanke Meisha Arts Academy.

Jacky's exceptional talent has been recognized with numerous awards. For example, he is the Second Place Winner of the 8th Hongkong international music festival music competition in 2021, the First Prize of 12th International Competition For Young Musicians of Italy CITTA di MASSA, the First Prize of the 3rd CANTAS International Competition of Russia, the gold medal at the national finals of the Guangdong-HongKong-Macao Greater Bay Area Youth Orchestra Competition 2022, the First Place Winner of the American Protégé International Music Talent Competition Spring 2023, and therefore has been invited to hold a Cello Recital Performance at Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall, New York City. Most recently, he performed his first cello recital, and won the gold medal at the 9th Macao International Art Open Competition in 2023. Since this February, He has been a member of Symphony Orchestra (senior group) of Metropolitan Youth Orchestra of Hongkong.

Apart from playing the cello, Jacky has a deep appreciation for music of all genres. He enjoys attending concerts and music festivals to find inspiration for his own performances.
