

Ariadni was born in 2009. She lives in Thessaloniki.

She has attended a lot of master classes by piano professors from various countries.

She has been awarded:

A first prize (silver medal) in the "Thess Junior Piano Contest" (Thessaloniki/Greece).

A first prize in the International Piano Competition "Citta Di Arona" (Italy).

A second prize in the International Music Award - organized by the Franz Schubert Conservatory (Vienna/Austria).

A first prize in the 3rd Music Competition "Tasos Pappas" (Thessaloniki/Greece).

A second prize in the Odin International Music competition (Dublin/Ireland).

A first prize in the II International Gloria Artis Music Competition (Vienna/Austria).

A first prize in the 5th National Music Competition "Orpheus Soloists" (Thessaloniki/Greece).

A first prize in the 5th International Musical Virtual Festival Competition "Gates of Hope" (Israel).

A first prize in the 2nd International Amadeus Online Piano Competition, (Italy).

A third prize in the North International Music Competition (there were no awards for first and second prizes).

A first prize in the 7th International online music competition NOUVELLE ETOILES (Paris/France).

A first prize in the 12<sup>h</sup> International Competition for Young Musicians "Citta di Massa" (Italy).

A first prize in the International Piano Competition Orbetello (Italy).

She qualified, as the only non-russian performer, for the final round in the Second International Chamber Music Competition "Winterreise", in Moscow, was included in 2 out of 13 prizes of the finals and invited for a master class in the Tchaikovsky Conservatory in Moscow.

She has performed twice in the Music Hall of Thessaloniki. Also, in the Bank Austria Salon im Alten Rathouse in Vienna, where she was invited to participate in the International Festival Gloria Artis Talents as a winner of the II International Gloria Artis Music Competition. She has performed in the opening ceremony of the "Green Mobility Conference 2022" in Greece and in the Archaeological Museum of Thessaloniki/Greece.