

Felix Miettinen - biography

Felix Miettinen is a lively third-grader, violinist and football player from Espoo, Southern Finland. He started playing the violin at the age of four, first with Jarno Koivunen and soon after with Sirkka Kuula at Espoo Music Institute. He made his solo debut at age 9 and is now trying his wings at a live violin competition for the first time.