

Natsha Pihakendr (Ping) started playing piano when she was five years old. Ever since, she has been passionate about classic music. Throughout her piano learning, Natsha always enjoys music pieces from various composers and also improves her performance skills as well as her music theory. Recently Natsha has passed her 5th grade ABRSM Examination with distinction.