

Qiannan Zhao was born into a musical family and developed a passion for music from a young age. She went on to study at the renowned Hochschule für Musik Detmold in Germany, where she honed her skills and received a comprehensive education in music. With many years of experience as an orchestral musician and a soloist, Qiannan Zhao has established herself as a highly skilled and accomplished musician. She continues to inspire and entertain audiences with her exceptional talent and dedication to music.