Marianna was born in 2007 in Saint-Petersburg, Russia. She started playing the flute at the age of 7 under the guidance of her teacher Elena Shpakovskaia. Marianna is a winner of local and international competitions. One of the last competitions in which she showed great results is the Young Talent (Saint-Petersburg government award). In the beginning of the year Marianna passed through the selection process and spent a month in The Sirius Educational Center. Marianna also takes vocal, piano classes and composes her own music.